A Prayer for the
New Year . . .
As the Old
Year Ends

Let us remember, as the old year ends,
That there has been no year without some new
And unexpected happiness that transcends the years; let us recall how friendships grew
Through days that we believed so desolate.
That nothing beautiful could ever grow
In then; and let us not forget how great
Successes came, when hope had seemed to go

 EVENTS FOR JANUARY 2013

Oh, let us not forget, beginning now
 A year that seems to promise little good,
 How even the darkest years contained somehow
 More lovely days than we believed they could,
 For so we are assured we shall not miss
 Some bright transcendent happiness in this.
